PROPOSED NEW CHURCH HOUSE.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE EGYPTIAN GAZETTE

TO THE EUTOR OF THE EXPETIAN GARRETE.
Sir.—In reference to the circulars issued to the voters of St. Mark's Church, e the church house for the chaplain, would not the difficulty be solved by restoring the £206, which was deducted from the chaplain's stipment before the appointment's Gason ward, so as to enable the chaplain to rent's house within easy distance of the church 1 On what grounds, and by whose authority, the stipment was lowered, has never been clearly understood by St. Mark's congregation. It was an unfortunate combination of circumstances that at the time the cost of fiving in Exprise raised considerably the chaplain's malary was as considerably made haplain's malary voters of St. Mark's Church.
